

WEEKEND 2026

BURLESQUE

HALL OF FAME

May 28-31

The Plaza Hotel and Casino, Las Vegas, NV

WELCOME

Welcome to the Burlesque Hall of Fame's annual celebration of burlesque's past, present, and future! For the next four days and nights, you and hundreds of other performers, producers, supporters, and fans will be part of the world's greatest display of love for the art of burlesque. Whether this is your first, tenth, or twentieth time, we're thrilled you're here!

Originally part of the Exotic Dancer's League annual meeting, the Striptease Reunion – this year is the 69th! – has always been a coming-together of the burlesque community, an opportunity to honor our connection to burlesque's past and create new connections in the present.

This year marks the 20th anniversary of the BHoF Weekender in Las Vegas, and how better to celebrate that milestone than by returning downtown to where the Weekender first sank its roots in Las Vegas? This year the Weekender will be held at the Plaza Hotel and Casino, a taste of classic Las Vegas and a gateway to Fremont Street.

What isn't changing is that there's plenty to do at the BHoF Weekender! Make new friends at the Welcome Mixer, take classes with Legends and titleholders at the Finishing School, go all in at Texas Tease 'Em poker, meet your soulmates at Click with Your Clique, ask your burning burlesque history questions at the Legends Q&A, and see the best striptease the world has to offer at three star-studded showcases. Every night ends with an amazing afterparty, culminating in the Striptease Reunion Party on Sunday, held at the Plaza's amazing rooftop pool!

This is more than just amazing shows and events — it's BHoF's most important annual fundraiser. With the closing of the museum last year, your support is more crucial than ever as we maintain our collection in storage, plan exhibitions and other programs around the country, foster new research, and work towards a new home in the future. Whatever changes, BHoF remains committed to pursuing the dream of Jennie Lee and Dixie Evans to keep the art of burlesque alive and to tell its stories. We thank you for helping to fund this vital work.

The Weekender is produced by a team of amazing volunteers, who generously donate their time, talent, and the sweat of their brow to make this event happen. Everyone on the team are volunteers who do this solely out of love of burlesque, BHoF, and the burlesque community. We could not be more thankful for each and every one of you.

On behalf of all of them, we hope you have the time of your life at the 2026 BHoF Weekender. For the next four days, you'll be part of contemporary burlesque history. Make the best of it: meet new friends, learn from our Legends, soak in every drop of burlesque's past, present, and future, and then take it home with you and build on it. We hope it will help inspire you and your community for the year to come.

With love,

CORSET CHOREO MAKING YOUR CORSET A MOMENT WITH JESSABELLE THUNDER, REIGNING MISS EXOTIC WORLD 2025

10:00am-11:00am

In this playful, movement-based workshop, Jessabelle Thunder will guide you through the art of transforming corset removal into a captivating performance highlight. Learn how to use musicality, breath, pacing, and smooth transitions to build tension, create drama, and tease with intention.

With simple, accessible choreography, you'll focus on performance quality rather than complicated steps—developing control, confidence, and stage presence along the way. Open to any student who wants to experiment, refine your timing, and learn practical tools to elevate your act both on and off stage.

What to Bring: Wear comfortable shoes or go barefoot, and please bring your own corset.

COSTUMING 101 THE ART OF RHINESTONING WITH FRANKIE FICTITIOUS, MISS EXOTIC WORLD 2019

11:30am - 12:30pm

Join Frankie Fictitious for a rhinestone workshop that goes beyond the basics. Frankie will walk you through how she personally approaches costuming — from initial concept to final stone placement — sharing her favorite techniques, shortcuts, layout tricks, and the little details that make a piece feel expensive and powerful on stage.

We'll cover composition, flow, color pairing, density, layering, and how to build texture so your pieces will catch the most light. No experience necessary — whether you're stoning your first piece or refining your signature look, you'll leave with practical tools and a sharper creative eye.

What to Bring: Note-taking supplies

COMEDIC BURLESQUE WITH MARGO MANIFESTO, 2025 MOST INNOVATIVE

1pm-2pm

Nibble at your funny bone! In this playful and interactive workshop, Margot Manifesto guides participants through the discovery of comedic timing, character-driven humor, and finding authentic moments of levity within your performance. Whether you're looking to sprinkle in a wink of wit or build an entirely comedic act, this class offers practical tools and supportive guidance to help you embrace your inner silly goose.

Through guided exercises and group exploration, you'll experiment with timing, escalation, subversion, and surprise—key elements that amplify your punchline! Come ready to participate with curiosity, joy, and a willingness to play. No prerequisites are required. Performers of all experience levels are welcome.

What to Bring: Note-taking supplies

69TH ANNUAL TITANS & ICONS REUNION SHOWCASE

HOSTED BY FOXY TANN

We are thrilled to reveal the lineup for the Titans & Icons of Tease Showcase! The heart-and-soul of The Burlesque Hall of Fame, this star-studded and crystal-encrusted blow-out stars legendary stripteasers from the Golden Era of burlesque through the 1970s.

An ode to vintage-style striptease in all its risqué glory, the Reunion Showcase has its roots in the annual gatherings of dancers held by Exotic Dancers League (EDL), and Burlesque Hall of Fame, founder Jennie Lee, beginning in 1957—a tradition we're honored to uphold—in the form of a living, breathing, bump-and-grinding testament to burlesque "as it was."

LEGENDS CHALLENGE

Members of the international burlesque community continue to show their love for our Legends by helping to send them to the Weekender. Those who contribute towards the 2026 Legends Challenge not only help us bring vintage superstars to Las Vegas, but by reducing the costs borne by BHoF, they also support the Burlesque Hall of Fame itself!

Founded by Sparkly Devil in 2011, Legends Challenge is in its SIXTEENTH year and as the Burlesque Hall of Fame has grown, so has our commitment to celebrating the amazing trailblazers who make burlesque great.

All funds raised are allocated first towards Legends' hotel rooms, Legends' Weekender passes, and assisting with travel expenses for Legends who have expressed need of assistance.

If you are interested in raising and/or donating funds to the Legends Challenge, please contact Kisa von Teasa at challenge@burlesquehall.com.

LETTER FROM

Welcome to another fabulous BHof Weekender!

This year has been a year of change, and the Weekender has not been untouched by it. We're in a new, more intimate venue in the heart of classic Las Vegas — a return to our early Las Vegas roots. We've made changes across our team, providing more opportunities for community members to play a role in the Weekender, and creating a mentorship system to transfer the reins to new production staff in all three showcases.

Amid everything, much has stayed the same, too. We still have amazing performers and burlesque legends from around the world, great vendors in the Burlesque Bazaar, awesome parties including a new poolside party on Sunday night, classes taught by some of the world's greatest performers from burlesque's classic era and today, and much more. And most of all, we still have YOU, the super-fans of the burlesque world, coming together to catch up, meet new people, and share the good times.

Of course, people want to know what's happening with the museum. Last year, we moved the collection into storage and began a new chapter in BHof's long story. We've worked on several projects since then, which some of you will have seen. We put up an exhibit at the New Mexico Burlesque Festival, and are in talks to do the same at other festivals around the country over the next year. We loaned pieces and expertise to Dupont Underground's exhibit on Black burlesque in Washington, DC, and are working with the curator to travel the exhibition around the country — including a possible stint in Las Vegas for next year's Weekender.

We're also working on some "big swing" ideas — launching a publishing imprint, acting as a fiscal sponsor for smaller organizations and projects, developing an "adults only" subscription to share some of the material in our collection that can't be posted on social media — that will take some time to get together. And of course, the biggest of big swing ideas, re-opening in the future.

The first step is to figure out what exactly do we even want to re-open? A location like the previous space, a standalone brick-and-mortar serving Las Vegas visitors? Or something else? Maybe a set of satellite locations partnered with local organizations? Maybe a digital-first virtual space? Maybe a partner in an institution dedicated to the performing arts as a whole, or Las Vegas entertainment as a whole, or...?

BHof's board is taking an "everything's on the table" position for the moment, trying to figure out how best to bring the art and history of burlesque to the widest possible audience — and how to make sure the messages we've always championed, about women's financial and bodily autonomy, LGBTQ+ rights, workers' rights, anti-age and disability discrimination, and individual artistic freedom, are front and center in everything we do. For the next few years, you'll see BHof projects more and more frequently in new spaces, while behind the scenes we work out how to create a permanent home that befits the stories burlesque has to tell.

THE DIRECTOR

As we watch history being literally erased from national parks, federal buildings, and museums around the country, it's hard to overstate how much is at stake. Nobody in the current US administration would be sad to see burlesque disappear from the public record. A bunch of working class performers of all genders, sexualities, races, and ethnicities, using their bodies and their sexuality to push back against the narratives of the rich and powerful? No thank you!

More than ever before, if we want this history to survive, if we want to be able to pass the story of burlesque on to future generations, we have to fight for it. And we at BHof couldn't be prouder than to fight with you at our side.

So please, if you're not already a member, become one. If you are a member, upgrade your membership, or donate. If you have a business, become a sponsor. Share the word, volunteer, and be part of what we do.

Right now, we get to celebrate this art form and this community together at this the 36th M_ Exotic World and the 69th Stripteasers Reunion. We get to honor the Legends who gifted burlesque to us and the performers who are carrying that gift to the next generation. For these few days out of the year, we laugh and hug and cry together and we pay homage to the power of a skillful reveal, a perfect bump-and-grind, and a wicked visual joke. And all that energy, all that love and humor and power, we get to take it home with us, to transform it into new art and new activism and new community.

Thank you for being part of the Weekender and part of the Burlesque Hall of Fame.

Hugs & glitter,

Dustin M. Wax

BHOF AT THE WEEKENDER

Come check out our exhibition in the vending area throughout the Weekender. "Spectacular, Erotic, and Slightly Shocking: A Timeline of American Burlesque" is our core exhibition, originating at the Fremont Street location, expanded and revised at the Main Street location, and now re-imagined as a traveling exhibition. The exhibition highlights major moments and figures that have shaped burlesque over the last century-and-a-half, from the early days of theatrical extravaganzas right up to the present.
